

AMR/AMI - Utility Metering and Network Services

As the need for utility metering information is becoming more important than ever, On Target Utility Services stands ready to assist your company with the challenges and projects necessary to better conserve and understand usage patterns. Whether you need help to quickly and efficiently deploy an automatic meter reading (AMR) system or assistance with the installation of an aerial advanced metering infrastructure (AMI) network. On Target has proven to have the expertise, experience and equipment to help every step of the way.

Municipal, investor owned, rural co-ops and private water, gas and electric companies' can call On Target to assist with equipment evaluation, project management, labor services or full turnkey solutions. On Target can act as the prime contractor, a subcontractor or a consultant to meet your project needs. On Target is truly a one stop shop when it comes to AMI deployment services. We have certified professionals that can install collectors and repeaters in both the communications and electrical space on utility poles and towers. Aerial professionals along with experienced project managers, supervisors and installers round out the complete meter team at On Target Utility Services your one source for Metering, AMR, AMI and Network Services.

For more information please visit us at:

www.ontargetservices.com

On Target Construction
52 Canco Road
Portland, ME 04103
888.339.4991

On Target Corporate Office
99 Enterprise Avenue
Gardiner, ME 04345
800.598.0628